

The Boston Herald, Inside Track

Harden brings 'Babys' to kids benefit

By Gaylee Fee and Laura Raposa | November 7, 2003

'Mystic River' star Marcia Gay Harden returned to Boston last night for a benefit screening of her flick, 'Casa De Los Babys,' to benefit the Alliance for Children Foundation. She's shown with Marisa Casey, hostess for the evening and adopted daughter of Alliance Executive Director Filis Casey. Harden, who plays an adoptive mom in the movie, did the panel discussion after the film with the Alliance founder Jane Queram [THIS IS FACTUALLY INCORRECT] and three social workers who specialize in international adoptions. The Alliance, a non-profit international adoption agency, specializes in Russian, Latin American and Chinese adoptions.